From the Pastor's Pen

"All good things must come to an end." So said Geoffrey Chaucer in the 1380's. His words echo through the centuries. As the calendar flips another page, we see the end of summer. September marks the end, the end of summer break, the end of summer schedules, the end of a sense of "freedom" for families. Personally, I'm closing in on the end of my first year among you. While I hope that we are excited about the days ahead together, I recognize some of you mourn the end of Pastor Paul's tenure. Soon enough, we will even have to say goodbye to our beloved DCO, as Craig's ministry among us will also come to an end. Terms and tenures come to an end. All good things, it seems, must do so.

The Apostle John, exiled on an island called Patmos, saw the end coming. Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away... Revelation 21:1. The first heaven and first earth had passed away...that's the heaven and earth we are on, the one we know. It will come to an end.

Good things end. Perhaps. But if there is any truth to it, then it can also mean something new is coming. Summer is at an end; yet September welcomes a new season and a new time of learning. Fall will come. And students of all ages will pick up the mantle of growth – both in the academics of society (math, science, language, etc.) and in the academics of the Spirit (prayer and reading, Biblical study, devotion in action). Worship life in the festival season of the Church year will begin. We will gather, discuss, and plan new initiatives and see anew lives being enriched and enlivened by the Gospel; and much that was at an end will be "reborn." We will confirm. We will graduate. We will plan. We will grow.

These beginnings will have their cycle. They are valuable and helpful. And these new beginnings will invite our time, our talent, our treasure, to become something valuable. Some new things at Trinity are already planning. Such as: A Rally Sunday Mission Festival; intentional conversations regarding how we form Christian character in our confirmands and how we desire to do so; a new year look at our personal management of God's Gospel and earthly gifts in the spheres of our lives (in society, in the Church, in the home); kicking off Lent with a congregation-wide Bible reading/study emphasis; increased efforts at communication, planning, and decision-making amongst us; and much more. These are indeed some exciting beginnings. You are a part of these new beginnings! Things end, yes; yet things arise anew too! I hope you ask how you can invest in these new beginnings!

In fairness, you need to know, that these new things will also be marred by some of the "old" things: temptations, fears, doubts, brokenness, challenges; these haven't ended completely yet. But the new that God promises isn't just a change, it's something better...far better. On a cross Jesus said, "It is finished!" Through Jesus John was able to see what would come next: a new heaven and a new earth, a new creation...one born of the Spirit, one given truly perfect earthly substance. Resurrection and righteousness, eternity and blessedness, joy and satisfaction; these are marks of a new beginning, a better beginning, without end. Sin comes to an end.

Behold, the dwelling place of God is with man...He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away...Behold, I am making all things new...I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end.

DCO CORNER

Rev. Peter Meier, Executive Director of the Center for United States Missions recently traveled to Ethiopia. The following are some excerpts from an article he wrote upon his return entitled, Multiplication Lessons from Ethiopia.

"Our purpose was to visit some of the Evangelical Mekane Yesus churches and leaders to consult with them about mission and ministry, and to gather with pastors and evangelists for training, prayer, and encouragement.

For many years, I have heard of the phenomenal growth in the Mekane Yesus church (EECMY). They are a case study in multiplication, having grown rapidly since it was officially constituted in the late 1950s. In the past ten years, EECMY has grown from 2.3 million members to over nine million today (an increase of over 290%!)

Originally, when I was invited to come and present, I was hesitant - what could I share with the church body that has outshined nearly every other denomination in terms of church planting? I decided to go and learn. I was not disappointed by what God taught me. Lessons from the Ethiopian church for the North American church are abundant! Here are several of the lessons I brought home with me.

The EECMY is the penultimate multiplying Lutheran church.

They have done this in several ways worth noting and emulating...

they utilize the gifts of the priesthood of all believers. Lay evangelists are used to preach and plant. Elders and Lay Leaders serve as worship leaders as well as congregation leaders, leaving the pastors to do the work of pastoring (Acts 6). How are we engaging the priesthood in ministry?

they have multiplied rapidly through community development projects - health, agriculture, income producing projects. Through these projects, people's lives are blessed, and doors are opened for the Gospel. "Mekane Yesus" means "the Place of Jesus," a name aptly describing what these service projects portray, and Who they intend people to meet through community development. ... How are we seeking to bless and serve our communities in ways that they desire?

they are a praying church. The political trials of the past have led them to deep prayer for their country and leaders, for the Gospel and their church, for the Lord's intervention and help. We experienced this first-hand. One of the most moving prayers I heard was sung - I didn't know what it was, so I asked, "What was that beautiful song?" It was The Lord's Prayer! While I didn't sing the Amharic words of the prayer, the music and words carried me along in my own prayers. Do we recognize and use prayer as the deep connection to God's heart and presence in our lives and ministries?

the people of the EECMY expect to multiply. Church planting in new places to reach new people is simply understood as the work of the Spirit through His church. There is no question, "Should we plant?" The question is "Where is the next place we will plant?" "Who shall we send?" Planting is a way of life for EECMY Christians.

With the rapid growth and multiplication, many new people have been baptized. However, our Ethiopian friends readily acknowledged that they are in need of deeper and more intentional discipleship training. We see the same need here in the States. When many of us were growing up, discipleship happened naturally in our homes - family devotions and Lutheran schools were an important part of my experience. Our children also benefitted from these discipling tools. While in Ethiopia, I recovered a deep respect for the Small Catechism as the teaching tool for families that Luther intended it to be. While passing along the teachings of God's Word, the family is the place where faith is lived and modeled in real-time. How does discipleship take place in your family? How could our churches help equip our parents for home discipleship?"

Many of our Anyuak members here at Trinity are from Ethiopia and some have connections with the Mekane Yesus Church. We have much to learn from the Lutherans in Ethiopia!

Worship and Music Notes

Instruments of Praise

"You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power, for you created all things, and by your will they were created and have their being." Rev. 4:11

God created us for His pleasure. We were framed by God in a way which would give us the capacity, opportunity, and enduring joy to bring pleasure to the Creator. As brothers and sisters in Christ, we are blessed to be members of the church family at Trinity. Our opportunities for worship are numerous! The music ministry at Trinity is a wonderful conduit for you to express and share your unique talents. The musical agencies are in place, but the extent of their offerings is dependent on your participation! As the Lord's creation, we are His instruments of praise.

"Do you not know that your bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own; you were bought at a price. Therefore honor God with your bodies." 1 Corinthians 6:19-20

"Bring my sons from afar and my daughters from the ends of the earth—everyone who is called by my name, whom I created for my glory, whom I formed and made... the people I formed for myself that they may proclaim my praise." Isaiah 43:6b-7, 23

As children of God sing and play the praises of the Lord, they must be consciously aware that God dwells within them and that they, the believers, are His instruments of praise. What an incredible responsibility!

Through Jesus, therefore, let us continually offer to God a sacrifice of praise—the fruit of lips that openly profess His name. Hebrews 13:15

The success of our musical offerings is dependent your participation! As we openly profess His Name through music, we want to give Him the best we have to offer. Won't you consider being a part of this sacrifice of praise? (It is a 'sacrifice' because it involves giving of your time, a commitment to be at rehearsals, possibly altering weekend plans, and making ministry a priority.) Considering what our Lord has done for us, I consider that a small price to pay!

We are actively recruiting participants for Adult Choir, Celebration Ringers and Worship teams. We have had many consistently faithful members in the past and hope they will be joined by new friends who will help in this noble endeavor. Please join us as we rehearse for Adult Choir and Celebration Ringers on Wednesday evenings @ 6:00 PM and Worship Teams on Thursdays @6:30 PM.

God has placed much emphasis on music in His Word. Music has a tremendous power to unify His people.

Listen! Your watchmen lift up their voices; TOGETHER they shout for joy. When the LORD returns to Zion, they will see it with their own eyes. Burst into songs of joy TOGETHER, you ruins of Jerusalem, for the LORD has comforted his people, he has redeemed Jerusalem. Isaiah 52:8-9

Music unifies God's people! The congregation which sings together, with heart and mind prepared for the message together, will be unified to reach the unsaved together- one voice, one mind, one heart and one spirit. (This article contains themes from the book Music in the Balance by Garlock and Woetzel)

Let every instrument be tuned for praise! Let all rejoice who have a voice to raise! And may God give us faith to sing always: ALLELUIA! LSB 796:5

Festival of Nativities

This is the earliest I have ever started planning for Christmas, but our Festival of Nativities Committee is busy planning a Christmas celebration worthy of a king. We are planning a celebration for our King and Savior, Jesus Christ. We will be inviting our neighbors, community members and churches too.

On Sunday, September 9th we will have a table for Trinity's Rally Day Mission Festival. Stop by and see what is planned for the festival November 30th and December 1st. If you are interested in volunteering, we will be happy to help you find an area to share your gifts and talents. Join your church family in celebrating our Savior's birth with our neighbors and community through Festival of Nativities. Please join us in preparing for the event!

There will be Congregational Information Meeting on Sunday, September 16th after the second service in the Fellowship hall for the purpose of discussing Trinity's Pastoral needs. The Leadership Team is also scheduling a Voters Assembly Meeting on Sunday, September 23rd at 11:45am as a follow - up. Please plan to attend these important meetings.

We are getting ready for another wonderful year of Sunday School

With that comes a need for teachers/volunteers. Our young children are looking to us to teach them and guide them spiritually. Please speak to Lisa Hejhal if you would like to be a part of our staff this year!

Our September meeting is Thursday, September 13th at 1:00pm in the Fellowship Hall. Guests Welcome!

Greetings to you in Jesus' name! This year at Prince of Peace our school theme is to be "Strong in the Lord" from Ephesians 6:10.

I am very excited to begin my first year at Prince of Peace. I am thankful for the warm welcome that my family and I have received and for the many prayers that were lifted up during this call process. My family and I have begun settling into life in St. Cloud as we moved the second weekend of August. My husband, David, works at Pawn America as their eCommerce Auditor. Our children, Maddux - 6th grade, Samuel - 3rd grade, and Steven - 1st grade, are looking forward to school beginning and making new friends.

This school year begins my 19th year in the teaching ministry. I taught for four years at East St. Paul Lutheran School in St. Paul, MN. Then I served for fourteen years at St. Paul's Lutheran Church and School in Prior Lake, MN. During my time at St. Paul's, I earned my Master's Degree from Concordia University, St. Paul, as well as completed the SLeD (School Leadership Development) program through the Missouri Synod.

I look forward to meeting you soon and perhaps seeing you around the school as many of you help us out in many ways. Have a blessed September!

In Christ,

Mrs. Anne Neilitz
